AROUND AND ABOUT

The Gallaudet College Alumni Committee will be meeting at the College on Friday, January 25....Need a ride from Cheverly? Ben Schowe is offering free transportation for two weeks from the Cheverly area to induce people to form carpools. If you are interested, give Ben a call at MSSD.... The College recently received a contribution of $700 from the J.S. Grant Mortgage Company of Chicago. This gift, in honor of the trustees, officers and staff of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, was made possible by the decision of Mr. Joseph S. Grant to forego sending Christmas cards this year....Mr. Jack Green, president of the Wheaton Rotary Club, announced that the Oyster Supper held in November for the benefit of Rotary District 762 Scholarships for the Deaf yielded $815 in scholarship money for the College....Leon LeBuffe is still looking for books for a book sale which will provide scholarship money for children from low income families who wish to attend the New City Montessori School in N.E. Washington. Drop your books by the History Department or Center for Continuing Education. If you give Leon a call at ext. 602, he will pick up your books.

BLACK LIGHT THEATRE: A UNIQUE ART FORM

The Black Light Theatre of Prague will be at Gallaudet College on February 24. Established in 1961 by Jiri Srnec, who still remains its artistic director, the Black Light Theatre uses a theatre form which originated in Southern Asia centuries ago. Actors, images and objects come to life on a totally blackened stage through the unique use of lighting.

One of Europe's favorite theatre companies, this theatre of magic and mime has toured more than 30 countries. Tickets are $5 for general admission and $2 for students.

Mail orders are now being accepted through February 8. Send stamped self-addressed envelope, with check payable to Gallaudet College to Jo Tracy, P.O. Box 1001. Box office hours will begin on February 18.

ON THE GREEN is published each week by the Office of Alumni & Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College. Remember DEADLINE for news items is Monday noon! Call 741 or TTY 480.
